

Evening Book Discussion Group

Meets on the 4th Tuesday of alternating months at 7:30 p.m., unless noted. For further information, please call the Readers' Advisory desk at (847) 259-6050 ext. 111.

JM 7/09

Rolling Meadows Library
3110 Martin Lane
Rolling Meadows, IL 60008
(847) 259-6050 • www.rmlib.org

2009 - 2010

Rolling Meadows Library

September 22, 2009

Fahrenheit 451

By Ray Bradbury

Imagine a time when books are banned and destroyed by the government. Ray Bradbury's classic explores that concept. This book was recently chosen as Columbia College Chicago's The Big Read. Read it for the first time or enjoy this classic again.

November 17, 2009

(3rd Tuesday of the month)

Skipping Christmas

By John Grisham

Have you ever been tempted to just skip Christmas and everything that goes with it? Luther and Nora Krank do just that. They decide to take a 10 day Caribbean cruise instead. Find out what happens when their family, friends, and neighbors are let in on it.

January 26, 2010

Water for Elephants

By Sara Gruen

This is the story of Jacob Jankowski's life with the circus. Jacob is in his nineties, living in a nursing home and hating every minute of it. The author has done a lot of research about circus lore for this novel.

March 23, 2010

The Right Stuff

By Tom Wolfe

Wolfe uses New Journalism techniques to tell the story of the early USA space program. This book is probably the best, funniest, and most vivid book about the USA manned space program.

April 27, 2010

Eat, Pray, Love: One Woman's Search for Everything Across Italy, India and Indonesia

By Elizabeth Gilbert

Eat, pray, love is the memoir of a magazine writer's yearlong travels in search of guidance, experiences, pleasure, and wholeness.

May 18, 2010

(3rd Tuesday of the month)

Breakfast at Sally's: One Homeless Man's Inspirational Journey

By Richard LeMieux

A self-made man with his own successful company, LeMieux lived a very comfortable life. After losing everything, he spent two years living out of his van and learning to rely on others. His uplifting story offers a powerful look at homelessness.

July 27, 2010

The Grace That Keeps This World
By Tom Bailey

Bailey's first novel is all about fathers and sons, community, tough love and compassion. The story is set in the Adirondacks, near the Canadian border with a family that lives off the land.

