readers' advisory recommends...

books

The Boston Girl by Anita Diamant is a fascinating picture of one woman's life that hinges on one question: "How did you get to be the woman you are today?" An acute study of women finding their place in the twentieth century.

The Wife Project is complete; Don and Rosie are now happily married, but Rosie is pregnant in the charming, heartwarming sequel The Rosie Effect by Graeme Simson. Don sets about learning the protocols of fatherhood and his strange style of research puts him in trouble with the law.

Put some adventure into your life this spring by rediscovering the timeless mysteries of Agatha Christie. You can find the Queen of Crime in print, on audio or as an Advantage title on My Media Mall.

Follow modern-day couple Maddy and Dalt as they believe that their love can conquer everything If Not for This by Pete Fromm.

movies

Jon Favreau teams up with a stellar cast for Chef, a palate pleasing road trip that manages to be sharp, funny, and flavorful.

In Bethlehem, a young Palestinian forced to inform for the Israelis, makes choices that will forever change his life and question his loyalty.

Downcast and despondent, Dan and Gretta meet at an open mic session, form an unlikely partnership to create an album, and their lives Begin Again.

In the mood for a good mystery? The Library has over a dozen different Agatha Christie mysteries in our DVD collection, including the critically acclaimed Inspector Poirot and Miss Marple Mysteries.

music

Hozier, the self-titled debut studio album of Irish recording artist Andrew Hozier-Byrne, is a masterful mix of rock, soul and blues. The evocative first single, "Take Me to Church", has been nominated for a Grammy Award as Song of the Year.

Foo Fighters' latest album Sonic Highways is a resonant trip around the United States (as evidenced in the accompanying HBO series) that lends itself to some of the best songs from the band in years.

Some of today's most popular singers join Barbra Streisand on her second duet CD titled Partners. It's easy listening at its best.

Finally, feel Alive and motivated by the extravagantly dynamic sounds of Japan's premier jazz keyboardist-composer, Hiromi Uehara.

READ to the Rhythm!

Get ready for our summer

teen scene

Books

Take a look at the new book: Teen Money Manual: a Guide to Cash, Credit, Spending, Saving, Work, Wealth and More by Kara McGuire. If you have questions, this book has the answers! The chapters are short and easy to understand.

Movies

In If I Stay, Mia Hall is caught between life and death after a car accident. Her next decision will decide her future and her ultimate fate. This movie is based on the book by Gayle Forman with the same title.

Music

Check out 1989 by Taylor Swift! Her album has spent many weeks on Billboard's Top 20. Listen and find out why.
