books

Sara Donati's highly anticipated, meticulously researched novel The Gilded Hour is a remarkable mysterious epic about two female doctors in 19th century New York.

Touching and lively, The Readers of Broken Wheel Recommend by Katarina Bivald is a genuine homage to the healing power of books and indelible human connection.

The Magic Strings of Frankie Presto by Mitch Albom is an amazing journey about the connections we make and the magical, life altering power of music.

Dr. Alex Delaware is back in Jonathan Kellerman's latest novel, Breakdown. Delaware is called upon when actresses start dying and there are no evident signs of violence. Check out this enthralling psychological thriller on My Media Mall as well as in print and audiobook.

teen scene

Books

Marissa Meyer's new book Winter is out! Join Princess Winter as she teams up with Cinder and her allies to defeat Queen Levana and find their happily ever afters.

Movies

The Barden Bellas are back in Pitch Perfect 2. After getting banned due to a scandal, the girls fight to win World Championships of A Cappella and finish their senior year as champs.

Music

And, while you're at it, check out the Pitch Perfect 2 Original Motion Picture Soundtrack! There are songs performed by the Barden Bellas, Anna Kendrick, Rebel Wilson, Adam DeVine and others!

discussion groups

For information about book discussion groups, see page 8.

movies

Mark Ruffalo gives an engaging performance as a bipolar father trying to care for his two free-spirited daughters in Infinitely Polar Bear, a raw, honest look at living with mental illness.

Nightingale is a Cinderella story for local writer Frederick Mensch. Showcasing the remarkable talent of David Oyelowo (Peter), the sole character in the film, Nightingale, is a provocative, spellbinding drama about a solitary war veteran who gradually psychologically unravels.

A new life abroad or at home? In Brooklyn, a young 1950s Irish immigrant girl faces a choice between two lives, loves and countries.

The latest superhero to join the Marvel Cinematic Universe may be short in stature but is big in heart. Ant-Man, starring Paul Rudd and Michael Douglas, is a hugely entertaining action adventure you won't want to miss.

music

After a nine year hiatus, Sleater-Kinney comes roaring back with No Cities to Love, an up-tempo surge of raw musical power.

At the age of eighteen, Yundi Li was the youngest winner of the historic Chopin Competition. Celebrated for his phenomenal technique and lyrical poeticism, he recently recorded the complete Chopin: Preludes. In China, Yundi compares to a major rock star and his concerts are regularly mobbed.

Cass County is the first album released by Don Henley in fifteen years. A mix of country with the feel of an early Eagles album, Henley and a cadre of well-known guests make this a CD you won't be able to stop playing.

Finally, hear why this mesmerizing new original Broadway cast recording, Hamilton, based on the life of Alexander Hamilton, is taking Broadway by storm.

Grades 4-5

Fridays, 4:00 - 4:45 p.m.

March 18: Fuzzy Mud

April 15: The Extraordinary Education of Nicholas Benedict

May 20: The Fourth Stall

Mysteries abound this Spring! First up is Fuzzy Mud, a suspense-filled story centered around the threat of bio-terrorism. In April, it's The Extraordinary Education of Nicholas Benedict, which tells the story of a young boy sent to a new orphanage where he encounters tough bullies, callous adults, and a life-changing mystery (it's also the prequel to the popular Mysterious Benedict Society series). Last up is The Fourth Stall, in which we meet professional problem-solvers Mac and Vince, who have their "office" in the boys' bathroom at school. When a particular third-grader comes to them for help, the boys get wrapped up in a mystery involving a high-school gambling ring, a graffiti ninja, and the Chicago Cubs. Come join the Council for snacks and discussion as we share our love of reading. (Stop by the Ask Me Desk in advance for help getting copies of the titles we'll be reading.)
