

Evening Book Discussion Group

Meets on the 4th Tuesday of alternating months at 7:30 p.m. in the library's Community Room,
unless noted. For further information, please call the Readers' Advisory desk
at (847) 259-6050 ext. 111.

JM 7/12

Rolling Meadows Library
3110 Martin Lane
Rolling Meadows, IL 60008
(847) 259-6050 • www.rmlib.org

2012 - 2013

Rolling Meadows Library

Tuesday, September 25, 2012

The Paris Wife

By Paula McLain

The Paris Wife shares the love story of renowned author Ernest Hemingway and his wife Hadley. This novel is set first in America, then in Paris during the illustrious 1920s.

Tuesday, November 27, 2012

(Meeting will be held in the Board Room)

The Girls from Ames

By Jeffrey Zaslow

This book chronicles the lives of eleven girls from the town of Ames, Iowa. These women, now in their late forties, are a testament to the true and lasting power of friendship.

Tuesday, January 22, 2013

Unbroken: A WWII Story of Survival, Resilience, and Redemption

By Laura Hillenbrand

This is the true story of a U.S. airman who spent forty-seven days adrift in the ocean before being rescued by the Japanese Navy. His story continues as he was held a prisoner of war until the end of World War II.

Tuesday, March 26, 2013

Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet

By Jamie Ford

Ford's debut novel, set in Seattle during World War II, tells the heart-warming story of widower Henry Lee, his father, and his first love, Keiko Okabe.

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Saving CeeCee Honeycutt

By Beth Hoffman

Steel Magnolias meets The Help in this Southern debut novel filled with humor, heart and wisdom. A little girl who loses her mother finds others who are willing to stand in her place.

Tuesday, May 21, 2013

(3rd Tuesday of the month)

The Submission

By Amy Waldman

The chosen winner of a contest to design the memorial for victims of a terrorist attack is an American Muslim. Personal grief and fear of public opinion undermine the healing message of the winning design. This debut novel is the 2012-2013 Suburban Mosaics choice for fostering cultural understanding through literature.

Tuesday, July 23, 2013

East of Eden

By John Steinbeck

Steinbeck's epic novel set in the rich farmlands of Salinas Valley, California, follows three generations of the Trask and Hamilton families. Many readers consider this to be the famed author's magnum opus.

