Defending Jacob

By William Landay

A fourteen-year-old boy is murdered near his middle school. A second fourteen-year-old boy is in custody for the crime. The author raises many personal and ethical questions in this legal thriller. What are a parent's responsibilities to a child, to a family, and to society at large?

The Aviator's Wife

By Melanie Benjamin

Anne Morrow married Colonel Charles Lindberg in a headline-making wedding. Anne thought that she had found a kindred spirit and a fellow adventurer in Charles. She became the first licensed female glider pilot in the United States. After several published works and six children, Anne was seen by many Americans simply as "the aviator's wife."

The Great Gatsby

By F. Scott Fitzgerald

This is the story of the wealthy Jay Gatsby and his love for the beautiful and later married Daisy Buchanan. It is a well-crafted tale of America in the Roaring Twenties. The Great Gatsby is one of the great classics of twentieth-century literature. Many readers consider it the crowning achievement of Fitzgerald's career.

Gone Girl

By Gillian Flynn

Marriage can be a real killer! On the day of their fifth wedding anniversary, Nick's wife Amy disappears. There are signs of a struggle and Nick becomes the prime suspect. The novel tells their story from alternating points of view. The truth lies somewhere in between, and it is far more dark and twisted than you can imagine!
