

Evening
Book Discussion Group

Evening Book Discussion Group

Meets on the 4th Tuesday of alternating months at 7:30 p.m. in the library's Community Room, unless noted.

For further information, please call the Readers' Advisory desk at 847-259-6050 ext. 111.

JM 7/16

Rolling Meadows Library
3110 Martin Lane
Rolling Meadows, IL 60008
(847) 259-6050 • www.rmlib.org

Just Desserts

2016 - 2017

Rolling Meadows Library

September 27, 2016

A Man Called Ove

by Fredrik Backman

Ove is certainly the grumpiest man that you will ever meet. His world is shaken up when he gets new neighbors. The moral of this story is that life is better when it is shared with others!

November 15, 2016

(third Tuesday due to Thanksgiving)

A Stranger for Christmas

by Carol Lynn Pearson

Two older ladies face a lonely holiday season in a nursing home. One of them still believes in the goodness of others. This is the story about love, family and miracles.

January 24, 2017

Give and Take: The Hidden Social Dynamics of Success

by Adam Grant

For years, society focused on individual characteristics for success: talent, hard work, passion and a little luck. Today success is also dependent on how well we interact with others. Most people are either: takers, matchers, or givers. Find out what type you are and how to reach your fullest potential!

March 28, 2017

The Phantom of the Opera

by Gaston Leroux

This book was first published in 1910 about the Phantom's obsessive love for the beautiful chorus girl named Christine. Maybe you have seen the musical, the film adaptations, or the recent performance at the Cadillac Palace Theatre. Now it's time to read the story for yourself!

April 25, 2017

Our Souls at Night

by Kent Haruf

Elderly Addie and her neighbor Louis both lost their spouses. Addie comes up with a creative solution for their loneliness. Their families and the town busybodies have their own ideas about it.

May 23, 2017

Creativity, Inc.: Overcoming the Unseen Forces that Stand in the Way of True Inspiration

by Ed Catmull

For nearly twenty years, Pixar has dominated the world of animation. Pixar movies are a lesson in what creativity is all about. Ed Catmull had a dream to make the first computer-animated movie. This is his story!

July 25, 2017

All the Light We Cannot See

by Anthony Doerr

Marie-Laure lives with her father in Paris near the Museum of Natural History. Werner lives in a mining town in Germany. Anthony Doerr interweaves their stories growing up in World War II. This beautiful story illustrates people trying to be good to one another against all odds!

